SALUDO

UNITY OF THE AMERICAS is more important than ever before. We combine our clubs, classes, sports, and social activities with a Pan American background because all children of the Western Hemisphere learn and play the same way. We are in a world where hatred and distrust are rampant; but we are striving to promote friendship and understanding with our Latin American neighbors.

LEST WE FORGET

Many members of the faculty and the student body have left school the past year to enter the armed services, and their absences are keenly felt. Although changes have occurred, we have made our watchword, "Carry On," in order to attain a lasting victory and in order to bring our men and boys home.
